01

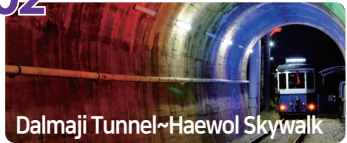

Mipo

In the Haeundae-Mipo section, the Haeundae beach, Dongbaek-seom island, and Gwangandae-gyo bridge are situated on the right side of the sea.

In the center, you can enjoy views of Igidae and Oryukdo Island.

02

Dalmaji Tunnel~Haewol Skywalk

According to the Korea Hydrographic and Oceanographic Agency (KHOA), the sea in front of Haewoljeong Pavilion at Dalmaji Hill marks the boundary between the East Sea and the South Sea. On clear days, you can observe Japan's Tsushima Island from the 11 o'clock direction. The distance from this location to Tsushima Island is approximately 48 km.

03

Haewol Skywalk~Cheongsapo

This section was infiltrated by a North Korean spy ship in 1985 and has remained closed to public access for the past 30 years. Recently, Mongdol Beach (Pebble Beach) has been opened, allowing visitors to experience a healing moment while listening to the soothing sound of waves crashing on pebbles.

04

Cheongsapo

Cheongsapo is renowned for its stunning sunrises and sunsets. The crosswalk in front of Cheongsapo Station has gained popularity for resembling a scene from the Japanese animation "Slam Dunk." This spot is a frequented photo location for tourists, offering a unique view created by the combination of the sea, road, and the Haeundae Beach Train.

07

Songjeong

Songjeong Beach is a sanctuary where one can escape the hustle and bustle of the city, immersing oneself in the beauty and purity of nature. Renowned as a family-friendly summer resort, the beach is characterized by its shallow waters and gentle slopes. Not only a favorite destination for families, but this Beach is also celebrated as a surfing mecca, drawing surfers year-round and adding a lively ambiance to the location.

06

Gudeokpo

The stretch of road from Gudeokpo to Cheongsapo and Mipo is known as 'Haeundae Sampo-gil.' Gudeokpo is particularly charming, with numerous restaurants and cafes exuding an emotional atmosphere, making it an ideal spot to create memories while enjoying the seaside view. Additionally, you can take a leisurely walk and experience the tranquil atmosphere at Gudeokpo Breakwater.

05

Daritdol Skywalk

The 'Daritdol Observatory,' featuring a floor made of transparent glass, offers a thrilling experience of walking in the sky above the sea. Admission to the Daritdol Observatory is free, but access may be restricted during strong winds or rain for safety reasons.
